

AVID TUTORIAL MAKE-UP ASSIGNMENT

This assignment is to be completed only when a TRF has not been submitted for tutorials. You may choose to complete any of the following options. You must remember to submit an Assignment Accountability Form in the tray explaining the need to make up the tutorial grade. This assignment is to be completed on your time, and you should still participate in tutorials as an active group member.

YOU HAVE EXACTLY ONE WEEK TO COMPLETE & TURN IN AN ASSIGNMENT OR YOU WILL RECEIVE A PERMANENT "0" FOR THE MISSED TUTORIAL.
TURN IN YOUR MAKE-UP ASSIGNMENT WITH THE DATE OF THE MISSED TUTORIAL WRITTEN ON TOP.

OPTION 1:

College/Career Article: Read an article from a reliable source (magazine, website, or newspaper) about a college-related topic OR a career that interests you.

Write a 1-page (3-paragraph) summary/reflection on the article. Include the article or a copy of the article.

The 1st paragraph should summarize the important points of the article (what the article was about).

The 2nd paragraph should explain how the article is related to AVID and explain what you learned from the article.

The 3rd paragraph should state your opinion of the topic or of the author's viewpoint. It should also have two questions that you would like to ask the author or that you would like to know more about the topic.

...Remember to proofread your assignment and support all of your paragraphs and ideas with details!!

OPTION 2:

Subject Content: Choose a topic you are currently studying in an advanced class to research further. Write at least one page of Cornell notes (including a summary!) on your findings.

OPTION 3:

If you have an idea for an alternate make-up assignment, share it with your teacher...it might just get approved! ☺
