Dear Parents of Eighth Grade Girls,

The Eighth Grade Social is a very special event for all of our students especially our young ladies. We are providing this additional information regarding the dress code policy for our female students in order to better ensure that the appropriate attire is worn to the function. This event is not to mirror a junior prom it has its own momentous place among your child's educational experiences. Therefore we have set guidelines for the dress code not to be black tie, but more Sunday Best to Semi-Formal. Please adhere to the following guidelines when making your wardrobe selections:

Fitted spaghetti strap or halter dresses are permitted

Dresses must be at least 4 inches above the knee in length

Dresses can be as long as mid-calf or T-length

The neckline of the dress must not fall below armpit level

NO tube top/strapless dresses

NO bare midriffs or excessive cleavage

NO backs exposed below the shoulder blades

NO dresses are to be floor length

Girls may wear dress pants but no denim or t-shirts

Examples of dresses on back of page.
